2020 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER WHEN REVIEWING MY INVESTMENTS?

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES	YES	NO	INVESTMENT ISSUES	YES	NO
Do the goals, time horizon, and objectives of your investment portfolio need to be reviewed, updated, or documented? If so, consider the following:			Does your aggregate asset allocation need to be reviewed? If so, consider reviewing your portfolio as a whole to help identify/avoid concentrations, wash sales, etc.
 If you are funding a planned major purchase or expenditure, review your timeframe and liquidity needs. If you intend to transfer an account to future generations, ensure that it is managed and titled properly, and addressed in your estate plan. 			 Do the investment selection criteria need to be reviewed and updated? If so, consider the investment philosophy and expense ratios for each investment, and the trading activity within each account.
> Do you need to assess or review your risk tolerance? If so, consider your resources, earning capacity, philosophy, phase of life, and personal financial goals. Also weigh your capacity and need for risk.			 Do the investment monitoring criteria need to be reviewed and updated? If so, consider the performance relative to peers and any changes to the investment manager team.
 Do you need to determine if you are on track to meet your goal(s)? If so, consider the following: Ensure that your expected returns (growth and income) are 			 If you rebalance your portfolio, does the rebalance plan need to be reviewed? If so, consider whether this should be done periodically, or when allocations drift from their targets by a predetermined amount.
 Ensure that your expected returns (growth and income) are reasonable. Apply appropriate tax and inflation adjustments. Review your retirement and life expectancy projections. 			Do you have tax-exempt, tax-deferred, and taxable investment accounts? If so, consider choosing asset location to maximize returns (e.g.
If you are taking distributions, have the spending and distribution rates been reviewed?			hold tax-efficient assets in taxable accounts, hold income-producing assets or assets distributing large capital gains in tax-efficient accounts).
 Do you need to review performance measurement methods? Do you have assets outside of your portfolio and/or future sources of income (e.g. pension, Social Security, annuity)? 			Are you taking or planning to take distributions from the account(s)? If so, consider your allocation to cash, and strategies to raise cash.
If so, consider how these resources affect your risk tolerance. A reliable lifetime income stream, from outside of your portfolio, could offset portfolio risk.			Do you have any significant positions that represent a large portion of your portfolio (such as company stock)? If so, you may be subject to concentration risk.
			Do you have any investments you want to own or exclude from your portfolio? If so, note your instructions and rationale (e.g. legacy, professional, tax considerations). If you would like to align your investing with ethical considerations, explore socially responsible investing (SRI), environmental, social, and governance (ESG), and impact investing strategies.  Do you need to open a new account specifically tied to an investment objective, or consolidate existing accounts? If so, consider the following: Take advantage of any tax-preferred accounts that align with your goals (e.g. 529s for education funding, HSAs for healthcare funding, 401(k)s, IRAs, etc. for retirement funding). When rolling over retirement accounts, be mindful of the impact and applicable rules.
TAX ISSUES	YES	NO
Do you have a taxable account and are you funding your current cash flow needs? If so, consider tax-efficient income generation and distribution strategies.
Do you have a taxable account consisting of long-term positions with low cost basis? If so, consider the following:
If your taxable income is below $40,000 ($80,000 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 0%.
 If your taxable income is between $40,000 and $441,450 ($80,000 and $496,600 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 15%. If your taxable income is above $441,450 ($496,600 if MFJ), your long-term capital gain rate is 20%. Do you have a taxable account and is your MAGI in excess of $200,000 ($250,000 if MFJ)? If so, consider strategies to manage your net investment income (minimizing the 3.8% NIIT), including investing in municipal bonds, which are not subject to federal taxation (and in some cases state taxes).
Do you hold assets with a tax loss? If so, consider the following:
